

Leonard Adkins-The Appalachian Trail Friday, March 1, 7:30-8:30 p.m.

Winding its way along the crest of the Appalachian Mountains for more than 2,170 miles from Georgia to Maine, this trail passes through some of the most beautiful scenery and largest remaining natural areas in the eastern U.S. Leonard Adkins has now hiked the entire Appalachian Trail five times an accomplishment achieved by only a handful of other travelers. The presentation is a compilation of all his journeys and depicts a typical "thm" biles.

Jeff Reynolds - Expedition Mountaineering: The Facts and Fiction of Climbing Mt. Everest Friday, March 15, 7:30-8:30 p.m.

From logistics and finance to conditioning and emergency response, high altitude expeditions involve significant effort and risk. Presenter Jeff Reynolds, with over 32 years of climbing experience, will discuss the fundamentals of planning and execution for high altitude expedition climbing and what it takes to get from concept to summit success.

Jeff has successfully led hundreds of high alpine trekking and climbing expeditions in South America, North America, Europe, Africa and Asia. He was recently an Expedition Leader for the S2Mountaineering's 2012 Mt Everest expedition, placing the entire team on the summit on May 19th.

His personal ambitions focus on exploration climbing and first ascents. Jeff is a committed advocate for high alpine preservation and responsible mountaineering.

Telluride Mountainfilm on Tour Friday, March 22, 7-10 p.m.

Each year in Telluride, Colorado, Mountainfilm celebrates cultures unique to mountain communities with an international rendezvous of legendary mountaineers, environmentalists, filmmakers, authors, scientists, and artists. The mission of Mountainfilm is to educate and inspire audiences about issues that matter, cultures worth exploring, and environments worth preserving. Don't miss this opportunity to view incredible outdoor films!